

The Ins and Outs of Invasives

Join us for an educational video series on common invasive plant species along the San Diego River. Learn how to identify them, combat them and revive native habitats.

Tune in this April: youtube.com/user/sdrpf. Details below.

Monday, April 19
12 p.m.

Welcome to the San Diego River Watershed + Common Invasive Plants Found in the Region

Get to know the San Diego River Watershed as we explore the importance of the San Diego River to our region, as well as how we can improve its health by targeting invasive plants!

Presented by: San Diego River Park Foundation

Tuesday, April 20
12 p.m.

Irresponsible Invasives: The Bad They Bring and Our Efforts to Fight Back

Invasive plants threaten the health of native habitats across San Diego County. Learn about this pesky plant problem and how you can be a part of the solution!

Presented by: San Diego River Park Foundation

Wednesday, April 21
12 p.m.

Fuel for Fire: How Invasives Affect Wildfires and What Parks are Doing to Mitigate Risk

Learn how invasive plants and pests increase wildfire risk, and how landowners are protecting parks and preserves.

Presented by: San Diego County Parks and Recreation

Thursday, April 22
12 p.m.

Backcountry Yard Guard: How to Detect and Protect Your Property from Invasives

Safeguarding your property from wildfires is easy when you remove or treat invasives and plant drought-tolerant native vegetation.

Presented by: San Diego County Parks and Recreation

